From Arthur's Home Gazette.
THE SUNBEAM AND THE RAIN DROP.
BY ELIZABETH G. BARBER.
A sunbeam and a rain-drop met together in the sky.
One afternoon in sunny June, when earth was parched and dry;
Each quarrelled for the precedence, ('twas so the story ran.)
And the golden sunbeam, warmly, the quarrel thus began.

"What were the earth without me? I come with beauty bright,
She smiles to hail my presence, and rejoices in my light;
I seek the hill and valley, with many a lovely hue,
I give the rose its blushes, and the violet its blue.

"I steal within the window, and through the cottage door,
And my presence like a blessing glides with smiles the broad earth o'er;
The brooks and streams flow dancing, and sparkling in my ray,
And the merry, happy children, in the golden sunshine play."

Then the tearful rain-drop answered—"Give praise where praise is due,
The earth indeed were lonely without a smile from you;
But without my visit, also, its beauty would decay,
The flowers droop and wither, and the streamlets dry away.

"I give the flowers their freshness, and you their colors gay,
My jewels would not sparkle, without your sunny ray.
Since each upon the other, so closely must depend,
Let us seek the earth together, and our common blessings blend."

The rain-drops, and the sunbeams, came laughing down to earth,
And it woke once more to beauty, and to myriad tones of mirth;
The river and the streamlet went dancing on their way,
And the rain-drops brightly sparkled in the sunbeam's golden ray.

The drooping flowers looked brighter, there was fragrance in the air,
The earth seemed new created, there was gladness everywhere;
And above the dark clouds, gleaming on the clear blue arch of Heaven,
The Rainbow in its beauty, like a smile of love was given.

'Twas a sweet and simple lesson, which the story told, I thought,
Not alone and single handed our kindest deeds are wrought;
Like the sunbeam and the rain-drop, work together, while we may,
And the bow of Heaven's own promise shall smile when our way.

HUMOROUS.

TAKING THE CENSUS.
It is well known that some "rich scenes" occur during the progress of the census taking; and the following is "one of 'em," which the writer, an eye and ear-witness, vouches for.

"There's the devil, with his book again, for the d'rectory!" shouted a junior of the family, to the maternal head, above stairs, who presently appears. "Is it the heads of the family ye want, sure? But last week ye wanted our names for the d'rectory, an' now ye want our heads! A free country, sure, when one's head isn't safe! Be off, an' a' bad luck till ye, an' all like ye!"

After some explanation, the questions in order were asked.
"Who is the head of the family?"
"Ann Phelan, yer honor, the same in old Ireland for ever."

"How many males in the family?"
"Three males a day, an' parities for dinner, an'—"

"But how many men and boys?"
"Och, why there's aould man an' boy, an' three children that died five years since, heaven rest their souls, the sweetest jewels that liver—"

"But how many are now living?"
"Meself an' me daughter Judy, ye see, an' a jewel of a girl she is, indeed."

"Have you no men in the family?"
"Sorra the one; the ould man works hard by day, and Patrick is not at home at all, but by his males and bed."

"How many are subject to military duty?"
"Never a one, Patrick and the ould man belongs to the Innish, and sure, finer looking sowagers were never born; did ye not see them the day the ould General was buried? 'Twould have made your heart beat to see two such gintles, well behaved boys."

"How many are entitled to vote?"
"Why the ould man and meself, and Judy; and warrant it we beat the natives and whigs, an' all, and elicited ould General Jackson over 'em all! Sorra the day when he died and disappointed us all, for a fine man was he."

"How many colored persons in your family?"
"Nagars, did ye mane nagars? Out, man, and don't be after insulting me! Out, man, an' never ask me for me senses agin, yer out of yer senses, yerself. Begone an' don't bother me."

of white beads scampering and running races every way you could think of about the floor.

By hokey, if Sally Jones aint grit there's no snakes. She fought fair however, I must admit, and neither tried to bite or scratch, and when she could fight no longer for the want of breath, she yielded handsomely. Her arms fell down by her side—her hair back over the chair, her eyes closed, and there lay a little plump mouth all in the air. Lord! did you ever see a hawk pounce on a robin? or a humble bee upon a clover top? I say nothing. Query, who could.

SUNDAY READING.

THOUGHTS FOR THE THOUGHTFUL.

MEANS OF REGENERATION.—All regeneration is effected by the Lord, by means of the truths of faith and of a life according to them.

The real spiritual life of man resides in a true conscience, for his faith, conjoined to his charity, is therein.

MAN IS BORN ONLY INTO NATURAL LIFE. Man is not born of his parents into spiritual life, but into natural life. Spiritual life consists in loving God above all things, and in loving his neighbor as himself, and this according to the precepts of faith, which the Lord taught in the Word. But natural life consists in loving ourselves and the world more than our neighbors, yea, more than God Himself.

THE LIFE OF MAN AFTER DEATH.—The life of man after death is the life of his love and the life of his faith, hence such as his love and such as his faith had been when he lived in the world, such his life remains to eternity. It is the life of hell with those who have loved themselves and the world above all things, and the life of heaven with those who have loved God above all things and their neighbors as themselves.

INCLINATION TO EVIL.—Man continually inclines to, and lapses into, what he derives from his hereditary principle: hence he confirms with himself that evil, and also superadds more of himself. These evils are altogether contrary to spiritual life, and destroy it; wherefore, unless man receives new life, which is spiritual life, from the Lord, thus unless he is conceived anew, is born anew, is educated anew, that is, is created anew, he is damned, for he wills nothing else, and thence thinks nothing else, but what is of self and the world.

HEREDITARY EVIL.—Every man is born of his parents into the evils of the love of self and of the world; for every evil, which by habit has acquired as it were a nature, is derived into the offspring; thus it descends successively from parents, from grandfathers, and from great grandfathers, in a long series backwards: whence the derivation of evil at length becomes so great, that the whole of man's proper life is nothing else but evil. This continual derivation of evil is not broken and altered, except by the life of faith and charity from the Lord.

THE INTERNAL AND THE EXTERNAL.—Every one has an internal man and an external man; the internal is what is called the spiritual man; and the external is what is called the natural man, and each is to be regenerated, that the man who is not regenerated, the external or natural man rules, and the internal serves; but with the man who is regenerated, the internal or spiritual rules, and the external serves. Whence it is manifest that the order of life is inverted with man from his birth, namely, that that principle serves which ought to rule, and that that principle rules which ought to serve. In order that man may be saved, this order must be inverted; and this inversion can by no means exist, but by regeneration from the Lord.

SIGNS OF REGENERATION.—The signs that sins are remitted, that is removed, are these which follow. They whose sins are remitted, perceive a delight in worshipping God for the sake of God, and in serving their neighbor for the sake of their neighbor, thus in doing good for the sake of good, and in speaking truth for the sake of truth; they are unwilling to claim merit by any thing of charity and faith; they shun and are averse to evils, as enmities, hatreds, revenge, adulteries, and the very thoughts of such things with intention. But the signs that sins are not remitted, that is, removed, are these which follow. They whose sins are not remitted, worship God not for the sake of God, and serve their neighbor not for the sake of their neighbor, thus they do not do good and speak truth for the sake of good and truth, but for the sake of themselves and the world; they wish to claim merit by their deeds; they perceive nothing undelightful in evils, as in enmity, in hatred, in revenge, in adulteries; and from these evils they think of them in all licentiousness.

THE NORTH CAROLINA Mutual Life Insurance Company.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THE above Company has been in operation nearly one year, under the immediate supervision of—
Dr. Chas. E. Johnson, President,
Wm. D. Haywood, Vice President,
James F. Jordan, Secretary,
Wm. H. Jones, Treasurer,
Perrin Babcock, Attorney,
Dr. Charles E. Johnson, Medical Board of Consultation,
Dr. Wm. H. McKee,
Dr. R. B. Haywood,
William D. Cooke,
Dr. William R. Scott,
Charles B. Root.

During this time more than 800 Policies have been issued, with an increasing demand for information on the subject of Life Insurance. This Company is working under the most liberal Charter known to Life Companies. The 5th Sec. is as follows:—
"Be it further enacted, That the husband may insure his own life, for the sole use and benefit of his wife or children, and in case of the death of the husband, the amount thus insured shall be paid over to the wife or children, or their guardian, if under age, for their own use, free from all the claims of the representatives of the husband or any of his creditors."

Organized on principles purely mutual, the life members participate in the whole of the profits. Besides, the insured is allowed to use annual dividends in the renewal of Premiums. Slaves are insured for a term of from one to five years, for 2-3ds their value. All losses of the Company are paid within ninety days after satisfactory proof is furnished. No California risks have or will be taken. Blankets and Pamphlets containing Charter, By-Laws, &c. can be had on application at the office of the Company, or any of the Agents.

Merchants and others, buying by the wholesale, will find it to their interest to give them a call. Raleigh, October 9, 1850. 7—1y

SOLDIERS' CLAIMS.

THE Subscriber would announce to all persons having Pension or other claims against the U. S. Government for Military duty, performed in the war of 1788, the war with Great Britain, in 1814, the Seminole War in 1836, or the late Mexican War, that he is prepared to undertake the collection of their claims, and will prosecute them with fidelity and despatch. He has blank forms of every description, furnished him by the U. S. Pension Agent at Washington City, and is also provided with the various Acts of Congress, down to the very latest, concerning the claims of persons against the Government for Military services.

From his unexampled success in establishing and prosecuting claims of this character, he feels confident that he will be able to secure to this class of worthy citizens their just rights, if they will entrust the management of their claims to him.

Soldiers, their heirs and legatees will be benefited by applying for information and advice, to J. H. KIRKHAM, Raleigh, N. C. Oct. 15, 1850. 8—1y
